

Course Title: Advanced Placement Environmental Science* 2001380(Y)

Prerequisite: B or higher in Biology I or Biology I Honors and B or higher in Chemistry I or Chemistry I Honors and B or higher in Algebra II and teacher recommendation

This is an intensive college-level course. Strong math background is recommended. The purpose of this course is to study man's interaction with the environment. Content shall include, but not be limited to, the following: chemistry, population dynamics, human populations, major forms of energy, forms of pollution, resource use, recycling, endangered species, conservation, environmental planning and policy, and ecosy