

Course Title: Advanced Placement Psychology* 2107350(Y)

Prerequisite: Teacher Recommendation 3.25 GPA (Un-weighted)

This is a college level course in which students will acquire and understanding of human behavior, behavioral interaction, and progressive development of individuals. This course is designed to prepare students for the AP test and is challenging and rigorous. The goal is to improve writing techniques, heighten research skills, and enhance understanding of the scientific study of the mind and behavior.