

Brittany Moore graduated cumme laude from the Univeristy of North Florida with her Bachelor of Arts in History and a minor in Professional education. She expanded her knowledge as teaching AP US History for the past 7 years. She created both curriculum and assessment for United States History. Her expertise paved the way for her to become an Advanced Placement Reader and Table Leader for the College Board and a Florida Partnership facilitator in AP United States History.