

Clint Lyons has taught AP World History since the 2007-2008 school year. Clint has attended various workshops on the subject along with being an AP grader since 2008 through the present. He has graded the test in both Ft. Collins, Colorado and Salt Lake City, Utah giving him invaluable insight into the AP grading process and changes in the program. Along with his teaching credentials, Clint also coaches three sports a year for Fleming Island High School giving him the opportunity to engage with students of all backgrounds.