

Mrs.Green has had the privilege of teaching AP Art History for five years where her love of history and art is realized everyday. She has a degree in Social Studies Education and is also certified to teach art k-12. Mrs. Green also taught six semesters of The History of Interior Design and Architecture at Florida State College at Jacksonville (formerly FCCJ). She attended two AP college workshops for a week in Atlanta at SCAD; one before the AP Art History test was revised and one after. While her test scores have always been above the national average, her average pass rate is in the high 80's with two years of a 100% pass rate. Mrs.Green has participated in various local art shows and enjoys dabbling in many art mediums.
